

House Resolution No. 1719

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize David "D.C." Colt, who has been selected as one of the National Athletic Trainers' Association's 2004 Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award recipients; and

Whereas, the Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award recognizes outstanding service and dedication to the athletic training profession; and

Whereas, candidates for the award must have held the Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC) credential, conferred by the NATA Board of Certification, for at least twenty years; have been recognized for service to the profession of athletic training at the local, state, and national/international level; attained recognition for distinguished service as a certified athletic trainer; and recognition for unique contributions to the profession of athletic training not recognized elsewhere; and

Whereas, one of eighteen recipients of the 2004 Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award, D.C. Colt currently serves as the Head Athletic Trainer at Northwest Missouri State University in Maryville; and

Whereas, D.C. Colt shares this tremendous accolade with all of his Northwest family, especially all the athletic training students and staff who have done so much over the years to make his job so enjoyable; and

Whereas, D.C. Colt has dedicated his career to the betterment of the athletic training profession through his state, district, and national service, and his efforts to provide quality healthcare to his patients; and

Whereas, D.C. Colt will receive the 2004 Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award during the NATA's 55th Annual Meeting and Clinical Symposia to be held June 18, 2004, in Baltimore, Maryland:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to D.C. Colt upon his most worthy receipt of the National Athletic Trainers' Association's 2004 Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Dave "D.C." Colt, as a mark of our esteem for him.
